

MT4 Trade Copiers Review

I am a forex accounts manager since 2003. I use several of high-frequency trading robots and also manual trading. My clients have accounts with MT4 brokers, Dukascopy (Jforex) and Currenex. The success of any money manager depends on the trading strategy and account management tool (trade copier or multiterminal). I would like to share my experience in using trade copiers. During my work as an account manager, I tested probably almost all trade copiers. Read more:
